Agenda

Welcome

Presentation – Ann-Louise Locke from SHIBA

Councilor Marc San Soucie – council update

Remember to vote.

Presentation tonight:

- The Human Rights Advisory Committee arts for human rights and presentation from Valley Catholic students Hands only CPR with Tualatin Valley Fire and Rescue.
- Senator Mark Hass will talk about latest senate hearings
- Proposal to apply for Enterprise Zone - program to bring employment to city
- Talk about proposal for a cultural involvement program to get more people involved who normally do not get involved in government.
- Mayors Budget hearings (formally adopted on June 19th after public hearings).

Suggestion made that we want more water fountains on the streets of Beaverton i.e. bubblers.

Beaverton Business Directory – Marc is scheduled for June. We need volunteers for July – Carolyn will write about view new person to Elsie Stuhr, August – Cathy will do on health and fitness (?) and September - Forum.

Elsie Stuhr Update – Grand re-opening at 10AM to 11:30AM. Sign up for classes. Harvest Festival on Sept. 7-8. Start collecting items in August. Receive tax certificate. Wellness Fair first Saturday of October.

Forum Update – Ann-Louise Locke from SHIBA (503-846-3094). Presentation, Oct. 13th, will include Medicare 101 and understanding Parts A, B, C and D. Preventative services. Have a PP presentation that can be included – takes 1.5 hours for full basics presentation. We want hybrid of basics with more about updates. Good name would be “Medicare Updates Forum.”

Have couple of volunteers to respond to additional questions. Will discuss at an upcoming meeting some ideas for how to deal with questions.

Marketing event. SHIBA website and Washington County website (not user friendly) can be used to advertise. Also advertise at Senior Centers, L&F Food for Thought, Marc will help with Beaverton City marketing, DAVS paper, and Senior Service offices.

Member Input -

- Tuesday, May 15th, 6 -7:30 PM – Presentation at Tualatin Community Center on SNAP, Tualatin Valley Gleaners and Farmers Market.
- Friday, June 15th, all day, Multnomah Food Summit
- Picnics in the Park – not many seniors last year. Should do all 4. Can have brochures or cards about Save the Date on Forum. Liz will send out list for volunteers.
- Last Tuesday events could start to include Multi-generational events such as square dancing for all add in ballroom and swing dancing.
- Jim will ask about us having a booth at the Last Tuesday events.
- Marc is going to ask if the Beaverton Symphony would play in the park.
- Asked when we should present to the Beaverton Council – Marc suggested after the summer. Suggest to take photos at events to be part of presentation to council.

Meeting adjourned at 3:55 p.m.
