Get More Involved With Your NAC - Volunteer Opportunities Available

"The NACs are great forums to identify community needs and to develop programs to address them. You have a group of people who know their community, care about the community and are willing to get involved. In addition, you have an extremely supportive City willing to help in any way possible. Please go to your NAC meeting, see how you can help your community." Bill Wood, Winner of the NAC Member Category for the 2012 Service to Beaverton Awards and member of the West Beaverton NAC.

1. Attend your next NAC meeting. Everyone is welcome, it's free, and you don't have to commit to anything. Come out and find out what your NAC has been talking about.
2. Join your NAC's Board of Directors. Once you attend some meetings you can ask about joining the Board of Directors. All it takes is a commitment to attend future meetings and actively participate in the discussions. The Board of Directors elect the Officers each year and are voting members of the NAC.
3. Become a NAC Officer. Officers are nominated and elected annually by the Board of Directors. Most NACs begin their election process for the following year in October (Vose begins in January). These are great volunteer opportunities in your own neighborhood.
 - Chair & Vice-Chair - Learn and practice your skills at planning and running effective meetings while also being the point of contact for your neighborhood.
 - Recorder - Good listener and writer? Put that know how to work to help keep your neighborhood informed about the NAC's discussions and activities.
 - Treasurer - Are numbers your specialty? Help your NAC maintain a balanced account to accomplish their goals.
 - Beaverton Committee for Citizen Involvement (BCCI) Representative - Work with other NACs to accomplish mutual goals and help to ensure that information flows between your NAC, the other 10 NACs, and the City.

If you have more questions about how to get involved with your NAC contact Jason Wachs in the Neighborhood Program at 503-526-2543 or by email at jwachs@BeavertonOregon.gov.
