BEAVERTON, Ore. – On Thursday, June 23 from 7-8:30 p.m., Beaverton City Library (12375 SW 5th St) will host a “travel” edition Story Slam, a friendly, open-mic storytelling competition. Have a travel story to share? Want to hear others’ stories of travel, from adventure to comedy to mishap? Potential storytellers will put their names in a hat; names will be picked from the hat and those chosen will take to the stage to tell their true, personal, five to eight minute story from memory.

The winner of the competition will receive a $10 Powell’s gift certificate. Potential storytellers should arrive 15 minutes prior to the even start to speak with the event host about their planned story. Story Slam is open to all who simply want to enjoy the show.
