BEAVERTON BAKERY CELEBRATES NEW LOOK WITH RIBBON CUTTING

BEAVERTON, Ore. – Beaverton Bakery will hold a ribbon cutting and reception honoring the bakery's new look on Wednesday, Aug. 3, at 10 a.m. at 12375 SW Broadway Street.

"Beaverton Bakery has been one of the most popular downtown landmarks for more than 90 years," said Mayor Denny Doyle. "I hope you will join us to celebrate this great local business and their fresh new look."

The bakery's exterior improvements include an updated theater marquee sign, uncovered transom windows, new signs throughout, new awning, and fresh paint.

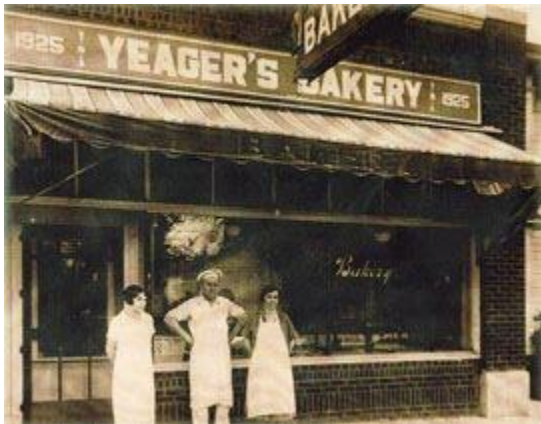

Attendees at the ribbon cutting will enjoy free Beaverton Bakery pastries and refreshments.

The City of Beaverton offers a number of programs to assist local businesses with exterior and interior improvements. Applications for the fall round of storefront improvement grants are being accepted through Friday, Sept. 9. For more information on these programs, visit www.BeavertonOregon.gov/Incentives.
