LAST CHANCE TO DANCE AT BEAVERTON THIRD THURSDAY OUTDOOR SUMMER CONCERT SERIES AUGUST 18

BEAVERTON, Ore. – Bring your cowboy boots and start your weekend early at the City of Beaverton's final free outdoor summer concert on Thursday, Aug. 18 from 5:30-8 p.m., featuring country jams by Cloverdayle. During intermission, watch Portland's Bahia Brazil Art Center dancers perform Capoeira. Bring your low lawn chairs or blankets, and picnic baskets full of yummy food, or enjoy dinner and drinks offered by one of these fine establishments at The Round: Bogza Coffee shop, Mio Sushi, Mingo's, and Siam Lotus.

Tillamook County Creamery Association will be handing out free samples of super premium ice cream, farm-style gelato, and frozen custard.

To top it off, there's even more fun! Come and watch professional chalk artist Lisa Antoinette create a large scale chalk work on the ground! There will be a chalk artist to bring attention to the October Beaverton Arts Mix! Art Show and Sale, which will include a Chalk Draw and Quick Draw contest.

Concertgoers can take the MAX to the Beaverton Central light rail station directly outside the event. For those driving, parking is available off of SW Cedar Hills Blvd at Westgate Drive in the former Westgate Theater lot.
