DEADLINE EXTENDED TO APPLY FOR CITY OF BEAVERTON BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS

BEAVERTON, Ore. – The City of Beaverton has extended the deadline to apply for the 16 boards and commissions currently seeking new members. Applications are due Tuesday, Oct. 11, at 4 p.m.

The City of Beaverton is seeking dynamic, dedicated, and motivated volunteers to serve on its boards and commissions. Boards and commissions members advise the city on a wide array of issues, including public outreach, equity, transportation, city budgeting, arts, and more. They may host public events, create advisory plans, or provide guidance on city programs.

“We’re committed to supporting strong community involvement in Beaverton,” said Mayor Denny Doyle. “Participating on a board or commission is an excellent way to contribute to the function of our local government. If you’re self-motivated, passionate about our community and ready to make a difference, please apply today.”

The following boards and commissions are recruiting for new members:

- Beaverton Arts Commission
- Beaverton Committee for Community Involvement
- Beaverton Committee on Aging
- Beaverton Urban Redevelopment Agency Board
- Bicycle Advisory Committee
- Board of Construction Appeals
- Budget Committee
- Diversity Advisory Board
- Human Rights Advisory Commission
- Library Advisory Board
- Planning Commission
- Sister Cities Advisory Board
- Social Services Funding Committee
- Traffic Commission
- Urban Renewal Advisory Committee
- Visioning Advisory Committee

Boards and commissions members are appointed by the city council to serve 1- to 3-year terms beginning in January 2017. Applicants are encouraged to attend the meetings of any board that interests them.
