PHOTO COURTESY OF THE CITY OF BEAVERTON - The City of Beaverton is now accepting applications for the annual Broadway Street Festival, to be held Saturday, June 24 in downtown Beaverton.

The City of Beaverton is accepting applications for food, craft and merchandise vendors to participate in the annual Broadway Street Festival from 3 to 8 p.m. Saturday, June 24, in downtown Beaverton.

The Broadway Street Festival is an afternoon of food, arts and crafts, live music and street vendors, presented by the Beaverton Downtown Association and the City of Beaverton. The festival will expand this year to three city blocks, closing Southwest Broadway Street to vehicles between Watson Avenue and East Avenue. Southwest Watson Avenue and Hall Boulevard will remain open to traffic.

The event is family-friendly and features food, beverages, music and activities that celebrate the identity and heritage of downtown Beaverton. Vendors of all backgrounds and experience levels are encouraged to apply.
