Meeting called to order at 7:20 PM by Henry Kane, Vice Chairman

Welcome and introductions.

Beaverton Police Department – Officer Garbutt reported on the area. He said that 3 suspects were arrested regarding the stabbing at Cedar Hills Crossing.

Previous Minutes – There was no quorum for approval.

Census 2010 Presentation - Robert Washburn, public relations with the United States Census Bureau spoke about training opportunities for census takers. He needs to recruit people to assist in census taking. He said wages start at $15.25 per hour and workers are paid while training. He explained that Congressional Districts and government funding is determined by the census numbers. The federal government allocates more than $300 billion to states and communities based partially on census data. Census Day is April 1, 2010. Be counted.
