Longest Day of the Year: A Summer Solstice Concert – Sat June 22nd

- Portland Cello Project will perform Beer Garden by Golden Valley Brewing will be at the Farmer's Market
- Shuttle parking will be available from Beaverton High School
- Quiet intermission to encourage mingling between neighbors, visits to the Farmer's Market, and engage in the cyanotype activity.
- At the event, we will have a cyanotype activity for the public.
 - Volunteer support is needed for this event to man multiple stations
 - Laura suggests having a plan to make it easy to transport the wet paper
 - Shelley proposes having examples for people to look at
 - Handouts will share the science behind the cyanotype and list supplies so they can do it at home

Action Item: Committee members should bring items that can be used at the cyanotype event

Action Item: Committee members should spread the word and send people to the Events page on the website

Cyanotype Workshop Wed June 5th, 1pm – 5pm

BAC Members and some City staff will be invited to attend. More details forthcoming from Debi.

Ten Tiny Dances Fri-Sat July 12-13th

- We will pass out flyers at the Farmer's Market leading up to the event again this year.
- Ambient music will be played between performances.
- Stage Locations: Top of parking garage, food carts, plaza, two near/on the Crescent Connection trail
- Swag discussion will continue. The umbrellas were very popular and we could seek out a lower cost option with lots of color.

Picnics in the Park Thurs July 25th, TBD Location/TBD Time

- The City is shifting to one picnic and they are highly encouraging engaging activities and experiences.
- There is no budget for this event, so we need to be creative.
- Laura has brainstormed "popsicle stick poetry" in English/Spanish and a mural on canvas or mesh that is paint-by-numbers and could be used at other City events.
 - The Committee supports the idea of a community art piece being created
- Debi mentioned partnering with a local music school to allow people to experience music and could pair well with painting rocks activity

Action Item: Committee members continue to brainstorm about activities for the City picnic

Beaverton Arts Mix! Art Show & Sale Thurs-Sun Oct 3-6th

- Thursday night reception is the biggest shift.
- Call To Artists is currently live and open until June 27th
- Discussion will continue

6:25pm Adjourn
