  - Consider the following:
    - Issue areas (e.g. transportation, parks, business development, housing, etc.)
    - Good government (e.g. communication between the City and the public)
    - Specific ideas (e.g. food carts in the previous vision)
    - Success/popularity of past action items (did we achieve what the public asked for last time?)
    - Current events that may have a lasting impact (e.g. COVID response, BLM and police/criminal justice reform, campaign finance)

- Who do we need to talk to gather that information?
  - How can we reach out to them?
  - How can we create opportunities for them to come to us?
