BEAVERTON MAYOR LACEY BEATY HOSTS 2021 STATE OF THE CITY MARCH 4

BEAVERTON, Ore. – Join Mayor Lacey Beaty for her first annual State of the City address to hear about Beaverton’s recent accomplishments and upcoming plans.

The virtual event is open to the community and will premiere Thursday, March 4 at 10 a.m. via the city’s YouTube, Facebook and Twitter accounts.

The event also will be accessible online at www.BeavertonOregon.gov/SOTC with a transcript of recorded remarks.

This year’s State of the City will feature comments provided by Mayor Lacey Beaty to share city happenings in 2020 and upcoming opportunities for 2021, as well as unique perspectives from business leaders, community partners and more.

Major topics include Beaverton’s response to COVID-19, ongoing recovery efforts, homelessness, housing, and public safety.

The event will be followed by an opportunity for live media interviews to further discuss Mayor Lacey Beaty’s plans and hopes for Beaverton.

Media interviews will be offered Thursday, March 4 from 2-3:30 p.m. upon request. Call 503-616-0697 to schedule an interview.

“I’m looking forward to connecting with the community about the future of our city,” said Mayor Lacey Beaty. “We’ve accomplished so much during this unprecedented year and this is our opportunity to take a look back at what we’ve completed and forward to what we hope to achieve.”
