MAYOR BEATY RESPONDS TO CRASH RESULTING IN PEDESTRIAN DEATH

(Beaverton, OR) – Early in the morning on April 15, 2021, Beaverton Police were dispatched to the scene of a crash in which a pedestrian was struck by a vehicle and pronounced dead on the scene. The driver of the vehicle was an on-duty Washington County Deputy, and the lead investigator is a detective with the Beaverton Police Department.

The pedestrian has been identified as 24-year-old Oliver Sevin Frazier-Savoy of Beaverton. “My heart is heavy for Oliver’s family and friends,” said Mayor Beaty. “While I did not know Oliver personally, I expect the impact of losing him to be felt by many in our community. As a parent, I can say with certainty that this is every parent’s worst nightmare. To Oliver’s family and friends, I want to express my deepest condolences and offer my support. Please reach out if I can help in any way.”

Beaverton Police Department has released two statements to date regarding the incident, which can be viewed here.
