

Beaverton Brownfields Assessment Project—Stakeholders and Partner Organizations

Direct Stakeholders	Indirect Stakeholders	Project Implementation Team
Critical program stakeholders <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Property owners in Beaverton Enterprise Zone ▪ Business owners in Beaverton Enterprise Zone Stakeholders associated with identified brownfield project site(s) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Brownfield site land owners ▪ Brownfield site business owners ▪ Brownfield site employees ▪ Residents and regular visitors of properties adjacent to a brownfield site ▪ Businesses and employees adjacent to a brownfield site ▪ Neighborhood Association Committees of affected areas ▪ Faith-based organizations and places of worship serving affected areas ▪ Portland Community College, Beaverton School District ▪ Community organizations that can assist with brownfield-related outreach: Community Partners for Affordable Housing, Center for Intercultural Organizing, Muslim Educational Trust, Beaverton Hispanic Center, Asian Health & Services Center, Korean Business Association ▪ Community health: Oregon Health Authority, Washington County Public Health, Upstream Public Health, Groundwork Portland Other direct stakeholders <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Commercial lenders active in Beaverton development ▪ Commercial real estate brokers active in Beaverton development ▪ Active commercial and industrial developers in Beaverton ▪ Business and industry organizations: BESThq, Microenterprise Services of Oregon (MESO), Adelante Mujeres, Beaverton Area Chamber of Commerce, Washington Economic Alliance, Hispanic Metropolitan Chamber of Commerce, Beaverton Downtown Association 	For overall program and project sites <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Corporate supporters ▪ Health clinics and hospitals ▪ Community gathering places: senior centers, nursing homes, places of worship, parks ▪ Neighborhood association committees (not in affected areas) ▪ Beaverton’s boards and commissions, including the Beaverton City Council, Beaverton Urban Redevelopment Agency (BURA), Beaverton Urban Renewal Advisory Committee (BURAC), Diversity Advisory Board, Beaverton Planning Commission, Beaverton Committee on Community Involvement (BCCI) ▪ Clean Water Services ▪ Other community-based organizations ▪ Generally interested residents, businesses, and property owners ▪ Other property and business owners Other potential public involvement partners <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Greater Portland Inc. ▪ Business Oregon ▪ Virginia Garcia ▪ Homeplate ▪ WorkSource Oregon ▪ WorkSystems Inc. ▪ Oregon Technology Business Center ▪ Portland YouthBuilders ▪ Homeplate ▪ Westside Transportation Alliance ▪ Media outlets 	Program leaders <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Community Engagement Team (CET) ▪ Technical Advisory Committee <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Beaverton Mayor’s Office • Beaverton Economic Development • Beaverton Community Development, Finance, and Public Works Departments • Oregon Department of Environmental Quality (DEQ) • Environmental Protection Agency ▪ Internal communication with City Departments/Divisions

